Recent Victory

Let's give a shout out to Elena on her amazing victory! After a two-day trial, she successfully obtained a Final Restraining Order for our client, with a finding that the other individual had committed all criminal acts alleged against him including assault, harassment, terroristic threats and criminal mischief, and that our client was in need of a Final Restraining Order to prevent further acts of domestic violence. There was an extensive history of domestic violence for years which had not been reported, and the client was finally able to obtain protection from the court with our representation.

If you or someone you know is suffering from domestic violence, please don't hesitate to contact us at 908-810-1083 and schedule a consultation today.

September 29th is National Coffee Day

In honor of National Coffee Day, here is a brief history of the origin of coffee, as well as some fun facts to enhance your coffee knowledge.

Legend has it; coffee was discovered in the Ethiopian highlands by Kaldi the goat herder. It is said that he discovered coffee when he noticed that after eating berries from a certain tree, his goats became so energetic that they wouldn't sleep at night.

Kaldi told the abbot of the local monastery what he was noticing, and the abbot then made a drink with the berries and realized it also kept him alert during his lengthy evening prayers. The abbot shared this news with the other monks at the monastery, and from there the word about the energizing effects of the berries began to spread.
